We're Stepping Up for Am Yisrael | Rav Rimon's Achotenu Program

Did you know that 130 Ethiopian-Israeli women are already working as nurses and occupational therapists in Israel's hospitals, thanks to a program Rav Rimon founded?

Shirly is one of them. Born in Israel to parents from Ethiopia, she was the first in her family to serve in the IDF as a combat soldier. After her service, she wanted to become a nurse, but the cost of a degree and the demands of studying stood in her way.

Achotenu, Rav Rimon's project for women from the Ethiopian-Israeli community, funds nursing and occupational therapy degrees at the Hebrew University. It covers the cost of the degree, provides academic support, and pairs each student with mentors who guide her into her career. With that support, Shirly could focus fully on her studies. She became the first in her family to earn an academic degree, graduating with both the President's Award and the Dean's Award for Excellence.

See Achotenu in action: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CBJ8VSIciM4

Today she cares for Israel's sickest children as a pediatric ICU nurse and is studying for a Master's degree. Since the war began, she has also served more than 200 days of reserve duty. At the hospital, she helps older Ethiopian patients understand their care in their own language. About the reserve duty still ahead, she says simply: "With Hashem's help, we'll get through it."

The war has made clear how much Israel needs women like Shirly. Hospitals are caring for thousands of wounded, and towns far from the major cities have long been short on nurses and therapists. Forty-nine more women are studying through Achotenu right now.

This Chanukah, Shomrei Emunah is stepping up for Am Yisrael.
Join us in training the next generation of nurses and occupational therapists Israel needs, with a gift to Rav Rimon's work.

SHMIRAS HALASHON MOMENT: The tongue is a sharp, finely honed instrument to be used sparingly and properly. The wasting of words dulls its edge and makes it less a tool when most needed.

Ner L'Maor

On Simchas Torah, we launched our annual Ner L'Maor Campaign, and we warmly invite everyone who uses the shul to participate. Contributions to the Ner L'Maor fund help cover the electricity that powers our shul and supports the davening and learning at Shomrei, from the earliest morning hours until late at night. Your generosity is vital to the success of this year's campaign.

We are asking for a contribution of $216, just $18 per month. Join us in this wonderful and important z'chus, and be part of the bracha we recite every Shabbos. To participate, please email office@shomreiemunah.org. Tizku L'mitzvos!

Thank you to our current sponsors!
